

SuperFine Persian Senneh Rug no. j1219

Description

Spectacular collector level finely woven early 20th century Persian Senneh rug. The weaver added a multicolored fringe that we have never seen. Antique Senneh rugs are one of the most distinctive of all Persian rugs, even though the designs are often similar to Bidjar Rugs and Tabriz rugs but just touching the rugs. Antique Senneh rugs use very tightly spun of fine silk-like wool. The pile is wondrously silky and the backside of them tend to be scratchy. They are as durable and are most appreciated by people who adore Persian rugs. People often time use them as wall decorations too.
