

Antique Khorassan Rug no. j1546

Description

An antique Persian Khorassan Rug. In the later nineteenth and earlier twentieth centuries Khorassan became a center for the production of high quality room-sized carpets, although many of these are sometimes known by more specific designations such as Mashad or Doroksh. The range of designs is extensive, from all-over to medallion formats in the classical tradition. This particular example has sublime colors and beautiful sparkling abrashes throughout.
